

What each component contributes to the susceptibility score

Variance share within each sex. Dashed line is equal weight (1/6).

female male

current

within-sex equalised

Before equalising, NOR drives a third of the male score and a twentieth of the female one – the same label meaning different things.